THE BOOK OF REVELATION
S01 ROADMAP OF REVELATION: OVERVIEW OF PARTS, SECTIONS, SYMBOLS – COREY STARK

I. SEVEN SIMPLE KEYS – MAKING THE BOOK OF REVELATION EASY TO UNDERSTAND

A. KEY 1: The book of Revelation is all about unveiling the glory of Jesus Christ. The title of the book is, “the Revelation of Jesus Christ” (Rev. 1:1), because its primary purpose is to unveil the unsearchable riches of Christ to transform the Church into a fully mature Bride who is made comparable to Him and prepared for eternal partnership while dwelling in face-to-face communion with our Father (Eph. 3:8; 4:13-16; 5:27; Rev. 19:7; 21:3; 22:17). We are progressively transformed into God’s image by beholding His glory (2 Cor. 3:18).

2 Cor. 3:18 But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord

B. Revelation also gives more insight and specific information into the brilliance of God’s master plan in the end-times than any other book to prepare the Church to transition the earth in mature partnership in the restoration (Acts 3:21). His plans are released through global unified prayers of faith (Mt. 16:19; Lk. 18:7-8).

Isa. 62:6 I have set watchmen… they shall never hold their peace day or night. You who make mention of the Lord, do not keep silent, 7 And give Him no rest till He establishes… Jerusalem as a praise in the earth.

C. As we grow in the knowledge of Jesus’ person and plans, we are strengthened, encouraged and prepared to not only endure, but to prevail through the unique dynamics and unprecedented events of the end-times (Dan. 11:32-33; Mt. 16:13-19; Jn. 7:38)! If we respond correctly to Jesus according to the truths given throughout Revelation, we can be confident of our preparation for the glory and crisis of the end times.

Dan 11:32 the people who know their God shall be strong, and carry out great exploits. 33 And those of the people who understand shall instruct many…

D. KEY 2: The book of Revelation was simply written to be easily understood by everyone. I believe that anyone can learn the main storyline of the book in less than one hour and be able to explain it to someone else in less than one day if they want to! Of course, we will continue to gain greater insight into Revelation forever, but we don’t have to wait until the age-to-come to begin today. God’s desire for us to understand Revelation is so great that it is the only book in the Bible promising a special blessing for all who reads it!

Rev. 1:3 Blessed is he who reads and those who hear… and keep those things which are written (Rev. 22:7)

E. A common misconception is that Revelation is impossible to understand. This deception is meant to keep the Church from receiving greater insight into the person of Jesus Christ (Rev. 1:1) and His end-time plan (2 Cor. 4:3; 11:3). If we don’t know the true Jesus of the Bible, we can never mature to become like Him (2 Cor. 3:18). If we don’t understand His end-time plans, we can never partner with Him to release those plans through prayer and thus, bring heaven to earth in the restoration of all things (Mt. 6:10; Acts 3:21)!

F. Therefore, we shouldn’t be surprised that a great battle rages around the book of Revelation to dismiss it as invalid, confuse it with various interpretations or cause the Church to fear its contents, imagining that the events in the book happen to them, instead of being released through them against the kingdom of darkness! The LORD promised His Church would have mature understanding of His end-time plan (Jer. 23:20; 30:24).

Jer. 23:20 The anger of the Lord will not turn back until He has executed and performed the thoughts of His heart [His plans]. In the latter days you will understand it perfectly [in a mature way]. (Jer 30:24)
THE BOOK OF REVELATION
S01 ROADMAP OF REVELATION: OVERVIEW OF PARTS, SECTIONS, SYMBOLS – COREY STARK

G. KEY 3: The Holy Spirit is our Teacher in understanding the book of Revelation. We can learn nothing about God by ourselves (Jn. 15:5). It takes God to know God. Therefore, the Holy Spirit was sent as our Helper to teach us all things (Jn. 14:16, 19-21, 26; 15:26; 16:12-15; 1 Cor. 2:9-12; 1 Jn. 2:20, 27). Our confidence to understand Revelation rests in His ability as a great Teacher and not in our ability as learners.

Jn. 14:26 The Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send… He will teach you all things…

H. The Holy Spirit is our divine escort into the deepest things of God’s heart, mind and abilities.

I Cor. 2:9 “Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him.” 10 But God has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God… 12 We have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might know the things that have been freely given to us by God.

I. KEY 4: The book of Revelation is meant to be understood literally. Since Revelation was written for the majority to understand and not just scholars, it is meant to be understood using an everyday, common sense approach. We call this the “literal” method of scriptural interpretation, wherein we seek to understand the plain meaning of the text that the author originally intended for his readers to have (Rev. 1:11, 19; 2:1, 8, 12, 18; 3:1, 7, 14; 14:13; 19:9; 21:5). Revelation simply says what it means and means what it says.

Rev. 1:19 Write the things you have seen, the things which are, and the things which will take place after this…

J. Although Revelation employs the use of multiple symbols throughout the book nothing is meant to be taken symbolically unless the text specifically indicates it as such. Examples of this would be the “mystery” of the seven stars (Rev. 1:20), the “mystery” of the seven lampstands (Rev. 1:20), the “sign” of the woman clothed with the sun (Rev. 12:1), the “sign” of the great fiery red dragon (Rev. 12:3) or the “mystery” of the woman and of the beast that carries her (Rev. 17:5, 7). This makes learning the main storyline of the book so much easier. We simply interpret all personalities, numbers and events in their plain, common sense meaning.

Rev. 12:1 A great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, the moon under her feet, and… a garland of twelve stars… 3 And another sign… a fiery red dragon having seven heads and ten horns…

K. KEY 5: The main symbols of Revelation are interpreted within the book itself. Many are surprised to know that there are only a few main symbols in Revelation that are sufficient to understand the main storyline of the book. The Lord has made it so simple that not only are these symbols indicated within the book, but they are also interpreted within the book as well (Rev. 1:20; 5:6; 11:8; 12:1, 3, 9; 17:7, 9, 12, 15-18)!

Rev. 1:20 The mystery of the seven stars… and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands which you saw are the seven churches.

L. Another principle in Revelation related to symbols is that the Bible interprets the Bible. This means that if the book of Revelation indicates that something is symbolic and it doesn’t interpret that symbol in the immediate text of the book itself, you can be sure that you will find its interpretation somewhere else in the Bible. For example, the “sword” proceeding from Jesus’ mouth (Rev. 1:16; 2:12, 16; 19:15, 21) is symbolic of the “Word of God,” which is interpreted in the books of Ephesians and Hebrews (Eph. 6:17; Heb. 4:12).

Eph. 6:13 Take up the whole armor of God… 17 and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God…
M. The Seven Primary Symbols in the Book of Revelation:

1. Dragon: is always symbolic of Satan (Rev. 12:3, 4, 7, 9, 13, 16, 17; 13:2, 4; 16:13; 20:2).

2. Beast: is symbolic of the Antichrist, who is called the “Beast” 36 times in the book of Revelation (Rev. 13; 14:9-11; 17:3-17; 19:19-21; 20:4, 10).

3. Another Beast: is symbolic of the False Prophet, who is called “another Beast” just once (Rev. 13:11). Every other time he is called the False Prophet (Rev. 13:11-17; 16:13; 19:20; 20:10).

4. Seven Heads: are 7 historical world empires that persecuted Israel – Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Persia, Greece, Rome and the future Antichrist Empire (Dan. 2:41-42; 7:7; Rev. 12:3; 13:1; 17:3-16).

5. Ten Horns: a future 10-nation confederation that will come into a dynamic partnership to serve the Antichrist together (Dan. 2:41-42; 7:7, 20, 24; 11:36-45; Rev. 12:3; 13:1; 17:3, 7, 12, 16).

6. Harlot Babylon: a global religious and economic system that is demonically empowered from the rebuilt city of Babylon on the Euphrates river in Iraq (Isa. 13-14; Jer. 50-51; Rev. 17-18).

7. Woman with Male-Child: is symbolic of the faithful remnant of ethnic Israel throughout history that gave birth to Jesus, the Male-Child who will “rule all nations with a rod of iron” (Mt. 1:1-17; Rev. 12:1-5). Satan wars with the “rest of her offspring” who are Gentile believers (Rev. 12:17).

N. KEY 6: The main theme of the book of Revelation isn’t persecution but victory! Contrary to popular belief the main theme of the book of Revelation isn’t Satan’s persecution of the saints, but rather Jesus’ victory over the enemies of God when He returns on the Day of the Lord to establish His Father’s Kingdom over all the nations of the earth forever (Dan. 7:13-14, 18, 22, 27; Jude 14-15; Rev. 1:7; 11:15-19)! Out of 404 verses, only 12 (less than 3%) speak directly about the persecution of Israel and the Church (Rev. 6:9-11; 11:7; 12:17; 13:7, 15; 16:6; 17:6; 18:24; 19:2; 20:4). The other 392 (97%) describe our victory over Satan (Rev. 20:1-15).

Rev. 19:6 And I heard, as it were, the voice of a great multitude, as the sound of many waters and as the sound of mighty thunderings, saying, “Alleluia! For the Lord God Omnipotent reigns!

O. The Day of the Lord is a “day of justice” when Jesus makes all the wrong things right (Pr. 6:34; Isa. 34; 61:2; 63:4; Jer. 46:10). It’s the second half of the unfolding Gospel storyline when He physically enforces the spiritual victory He legally obtained at the cross (Rev. 5). In one sweeping series of events, Jesus will deliver His people and the planet from the power of sin, sickness and Satan forever! Jesus will use the least severe means to take the greatest number of people to the deepest level of love without violating anyone’s freewill.

 Isa. 42:1 Behold! My Servant whom I uphold, My Elect One in whom My soul delights! I have put My Spirit upon Him… 4 He will not fail nor be discouraged, till He has established justice in the earth…

P. The emphasis on the Day of the Lord throughout Revelation (Rev. 6:17) refers to the unique dynamics and unprecedented events, both great and terrible, surrounding Jesus’ victorious return (Joel 2:11, 31; Mal. 4:5; Acts 2:20). It will be a “great day” for the responsive who experience the greatest revival in human history (Acts 2:17-19), while being a “very terrible day” for the rebellious who experience twenty-one of God’s most severe judgments, during the 3½ years of the Great Tribulation (Mt. 24:21; Rev. 6-19).

 Joel 2:11 For the day of the Lord is great and very terrible; who can endure it?
Q. KEY 7: The key judgment events of the book of Revelation are yet future. Jesus has not yet opened the scroll of God’s master plan (Rev. 6:1). It wasn’t opened at the time of His ascension in approximately 30 AD, but only sometime after His appearance and command to John to write in approximately 90 AD (Rev. 2-3).

Rev. 4:1 After these things [7 letters in 90 AD] behold, a door standing open in heaven. And the first voice [Jesus], which I heard... “Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this.”

R. Jesus takes the scroll and breaks the seals, releasing judgment only after the bowls of prayer are completely full (Rev. 5:8). In other words, the seals aren’t broken until the end-time Church has fully matured in love and is prepared in wisdom to partner with Jesus in ruling the nations of the earth during the Millennium.

Rev. 5:8 Now when He had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

S. We need not fear God’s judgments happen to us as helpless victims of Satan, but rather, are released through us as active participants under Jesus’ leadership (Joel 2:28-32; Acts 2:17-19). As Jesus opens the scroll, the judgments written within it are released on earth against the kingdom of darkness through the global unified prayers of the end-time Church (Ps. 149:6-9; 2 Chr. 20:21-22; Is. 24:14-16; 42:10-13; Joel 2:28-32; Mt. 16:18-19; Acts 2:17-21; Rev. 5:8; 6:9-11; 8:3-5; 9:13; 10:6; 14:18; 16:7; 19:2; 22:17).

Ps. 149:6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth… 7 To execute vengeance on the nations [in league w/Antichrist]… 9 To execute on them the written judgment – this honor have all His saints. (Rev. 19:2)

II. BASIC STRUCTURE: FOUR PARTS AND FIVE SECTIONS

A. Two reasons that many do not read Revelation is because they are confused by the basic structure (parts and sections) and few main symbols found within the book. However, once we know them we have a clear “roadmap” to understand where we are in the unfolding storyline, giving us confidence that we can read, understand and begin partnering with the LORD as we “keep those things” written in the book of Revelation.

Rev. 1:3 Blessed is he who reads and those who hear [respond to] the words of this prophecy, and keep [guard] those things which are written in it; for the time is near. (Rev. 22:7)

B. There are four parts in the basic structure of the book of Revelation. The fourth part contains five chronological sections in which the events occur in sequential order, followed by an angelic explanation of each section. That is only a total of nine pieces of information (four parts, five sections), giving us a clear “roadmap” to know where we are in the unfolding storyline of the book.

PART ONE: John’s CALLING to Prophesy About the End-Times (Rev. 1)

PART TWO: Jesus Gave 7 LETTERS to 7 Churches (Rev. 2-3)

PART THREE: Jesus Takes the SCROLL (Rev. 4-5)

PART FOUR: Jesus’ BATTLE PLAN (Rev. 6-22)

C. There are only seven main symbols found throughout the book of Revelation.

www.coreystark.com
III. PART ONE: JOHN’S CALLING TO PROPHESY ABOUT THE END-TIMES (REV. 1)

A. Revelation chapter 1 gives us the clearest picture of who Jesus is in His dual nature, as both fully God and fully Man. The Father commissioned Jesus to unveil certain dimensions of the glory of His person and brilliance of His plan, as the means to transform His people into a fully mature Bride and prepare them for wholehearted partnership in the restoration of all things (Acts 3:21).

Rev. 1:1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God [the Father] gave Him [Jesus] to show His servants…

B. Jesus revealed Himself to John as the “Son of Man”, highlighting 52 distinct aspects of His majesty, strategically given in 14 titles, 10 attributes and 28 descriptions meant to impact the message and manner by which he would prophesy. Jesus was intentionally transforming John (2 Cor. 3:18), giving him the correct perspective to interpret, pray and prophesy the following events with the right heart and for the right reason.

C. If we faithfully respond to Jesus according to the core truths given throughout the book of Revelation, we can be confidently prepared for the unfolding events of the end times (Rev. 7:9-17; 12:11; 15:2-4; 19:1-8).

Rev. 7:9 Behold, a great multitude which no one could number, of all nations, tribes, peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, with palm branches… 10 saying, “Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!” …14 “These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation, and washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.”

IV. PART TWO: JESUS GAVE 7 LETTERS TO 7 CHURCHES (REV. 2-3)

A. Revelation chapters 2-3 give us the clearest picture of what Jesus desires in His Church by revealing the “blueprints” for the Church after God’s heart He is building (Mt. 16:18; Eph. 2:19-22; 5:27). This corporate dwelling place of God’s manifest presence (Ps. 132) will release His power, while being an eschatological “Ark” that sustains the saints in unified safety by giving provision, protection and direction (Lk. 17:26).

Eph. 2:22 in whom you also are being built together for a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.

B. Jesus directs John to write seven letters to seven specific churches in Asia Minor (Rev. 1:11). In them He reveals another 85 distinct aspects of His majesty, specifically magnifying 1-2 aspects of His character and ministry on behalf of each Church to empower them to overcome the challenge that He is highlighting, so that they might obtain the promise that He is giving. Jesus lists a total of 26 eternal rewards for all those who sustain their dedication until the end, as motivation for them to resist temptation, endure persecution and overcome compromise associated with the mundane seasons of routine life (Rev. 2:7, 10, 17, 26; 3:5, 12, 21).

Rev. 1:11 What you see, write in a book and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia: to Ephesus, to Smyrna, to Pergamos, to Thyatira, to Sardis, to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea…

C. While giving practical instruction to seven historical churches (Rev. 1:11) Jesus is prophetically equipping the universal Church to overcome by highlighting the primary challenges common to all (Rev. 2:7). However, these seven letters find their primary application and ultimate fulfillment in the final generation who will experience the glory and crisis of the great tribulation (Mt. 24:21). Jesus is preparing the end-time Church to prevail through the unique dynamics and unprecedented events of the end times in great victory (Rev. 3:11)!
V. PART THREE: JESUS TAKES THE SCROLL (REV. 4-5)

A. Revelation chapters 4-5 give us the clearest picture of Jesus’ authority, ability and resources. In Revelation 4 John is translated to the Father’s Throne, referred to as the “beauty realm of God”, where he sees the sovereign power of the eternal Creator. This chapter gives us the greatest revelation of the Father’s Person and surroundings found anywhere in Scripture and is meant to impart confidence in our certain victory!

Rev. 4:2 I was in the Spirit; and behold, a throne set in heaven, and One sat on the throne. 3 He was like a jasper and a sardius stone in appearance; and there was a rainbow around the throne... like an emerald.

B. The Holy Spirit reveals to John how the Father feels about Jesus, including His full endorsement and commissioning, along with the infinite resources made available to Him for the execution of the Father’s master plan to exalt Him as a resurrected human King over all the nations of the earth forever!

Rev. 5:11 I heard many angels around the throne... 12 saying with a loud voice: “Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing!”

C. In Revelation chapter 5, Jesus takes the scroll from the Father’s hand. As the Lamb slain, Jesus is the only One worthy to loose the seven seals and open the scroll, which is the “title deed” of the earth and the “battle plan” necessary to bring the mystery of God to completion (Rev. 10:7). Jesus is the only unique person with the authority, ability and resources to flawlessly execute the Father’s master plan with absolute precision.

Rev. 5:1 And I saw in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne a scroll... sealed with seven seals... 7 Then He [Jesus] came and took the scroll out of the right hand of Him who sat on the throne.

VI. PART FOUR: JESUS’ BATTLE PLAN (REV. 6-22)

A. Revelation chapters 6-22 give us the clearest picture of what Jesus will do for the sake of love, including the absolute eradication of sin, along with its adherents and effects from the universe, the creation of one new man, comprised of both Jews and Gentiles from every tribe and the complete restoration of the entire created order in preparation for the Father’s permanent coming to the New Earth (1 Cor. 15:24-28; Eph. 1:10).

Rev. 21:3 Behold, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them... God Himself will be with them and be their God... 22:4 They shall see His face, and His name shall be on their foreheads.

B. God’s desire has always been to dwell in unhindered face-to-face communion with His people in the paradise-like conditions of the Garden of Eden on the earth forever (Rev. 21:3; 22:4)! After Adam sinned in disobedience to God’s will a “veil of separation” divided the two realms of heaven and earth (Isa. 24:18; 25:7; 34:4; Rev. 6:14). Therefore, the centerpiece of God’s eternal purpose is for Jesus to accomplish their full convergence again, gathering them together as it was in the beginning (Gen. 1-3; Eph. 1:9-10; Col. 1:19-20).

Eph. 1:10 He might gather together in one all things in Christ, which are in heaven and on earth...

C. Jesus, the Lamb of God, breaks the seals to open the scroll, unfolding His “battle plan” to remove everything that hinders love and establish His Father’s Kingdom upon the earth (Mt. 6:10; Hag. 2:6-9, 21; Zeph. 1:18; 3:8; Heb. 12:25-29). This is the main storyline of chronological events displayed in seven seals (Rev. 6), seven trumpets (Rev. 8-9) and seven bowls (Rev. 15-16) and covers the largest section of the book.
VII. THE FOURTH PART: “JESUS’ BATTLE PLAN” HAS FIVE SECTIONS

A. In the fourth part of the book of Revelation “Jesus’ Battle Plan” there are five chronological sections that describe events unfolding on the earth in a sequential order, beginning with the Tribulation period, continuing into the Millennium and culminating with the New Heavens and Earth. Each chronological section is followed by an angelic explanation of each to help us understand the “why’s” behind the “what’s” of that section.

B. The five chronological sections tell us what happens to the Antichrist’s empire and his follower’s in twenty-one judgment events (7 seals, 7 trumpets, 7 bowls) that intensify in severity, as they unfold on the earth in a sequential order. They are the main storyline of judgment released against the kingdom of darkness upon the earth through the praying Church in the order that they occur (Mt. 16:18-19; Lk. 18:7-8; Rev. 22:17).

C. The five angelic explanations that follow each of the chronological sections, function as a parenthesis, putting the storyline on “pause”, while an angel gives John a pastoral, heart-to-heart, behind the scene’s explanation answering, “Why is God’s judgment so severe?” and “What will happen to God’s people?”

1. What Satan will do to oppose us using the interference of demons, the persecution of the Antichrist Empire and the seduction of the Harlot Babylon system.

2. What Jesus will do to help us using the intervention of angels, the prophetic ministry of the Two Witnesses and the power of the Kingdom by releasing provision, protection, direction and reward.

SECTION ONE

Rev. 6 Chronological section #1: the SEAL JUDGMENTS prepare the nations for God’s glory
Rev. 7 Angelic explanation #1: God gives divine PROTECTION from judgments and falling away

SECTION TWO

Rev. 8-9 Chronological section #2: the TRUMPET JUDGMENTS against the Antichrist empire
Rev. 10-11 Angelic explanation #2: God gives DIRECTION by increased prophetic ministry

SECTION THREE

Rev. 11:15-19 Chronological section #3: Jesus’ SECOND COMING & RAPTURE of the Church
Rev. 12-14 Angelic explanation #3: God reveals Satan’s CONFRONTATION against the saints

SECTION FOUR

Rev. 15-16 Chronological section #4: the BOWL JUDGMENTS destroy evil infrastructures
Rev. 17-18 Angelic explanation #4: God reveals the SEDUCTION of Harlot Babylon

SECTION FIVE

Rev. 19-20 Chronological section #5: Jesus’ TRIUMPHAL ENTRY into Jerusalem
Rev. 21-22 Angelic explanation #5: God reveals the RESTORATION of all things (Acts 3:21)
VIII. HAVING THE CORRECT PERSPECTIVE – TWELVE WAYS TO VIEW THE BOOK

The book of Revelation is all about unveiling the beauty and glory of Jesus Christ. Like John, it gives us the correct perspective to interpret, pray and prophesy its contents with the right heart and for the right reasons.

A. End Time Book of Acts: Just as the book of Acts describes the power of the Holy Spirit through the early Church, so the Revelation describes the power of the Holy Spirit through the end-time Church.

B. Greatest Story Ever Told: All the epic love stories find inspiration from within the grand storyline of Revelation, including original paradise, innocent love, captivity, deliverance, restoration and ultimate victory!

C. Divine Navigation: When all of the natural light of this world has failed, Revelation is our infallible “compass” to give us divine wisdom to navigate through the coming storm of the end times (Lk. 17:26).

D. Bridal Preparation Handbook: Even as Esther was prepared prior to meeting her king, so also the Holy Spirit is preparing the Bride of Christ in unprecedented unity, maturity and purity for her King (Rev. 19:7).

E. Catalytic Scroll: As we “eat the scroll” that is sweet and bitter, our lives become a message that is catalytic in provoking a response below the surface, exposing the truth in their hearts (Ezek. 2:8-3:3; Rev. 10:8-11).

F. Canonized Prayer Manual: As Moses stretched forth his rod to release the 10 plagues upon Pharaoh through prayer (Ex. 7-12), so the end-time Church will stretch forth the “rod of intercession” to release the Great Tribulation judgments upon the end-time Pharaoh (Antichrist) through prayer (Ps. 149:6-9; Mic. 7:15).

G. Divine Warning: Jesus likened His return to the “days of Noah” (Lk. 17:26) when a divine warning of an unprecedented, future and imminent global shaking was meant to inspire preparation (Hag. 2:6-9; Heb. 11:7).

Heb. 11:7 Noah, being divinely warned of things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark for the saving of his household, by which he condemned the world and became heir of righteousness…

H. Second Exodus: As God delivered the Jewish people from Pharaoh in Egypt with a mighty right hand, so He will deliver them again on a global scale (Isa. 10:24-27; 11:11-16; Jer. 16:14-15; 23:7-8; Mic. 7:15).

Isa. 11:11 The Lord shall set His hand again the second time to recover the remnant of His people who are left, from Assyria and Egypt… 12 from the four corners of the earth…

I. Antitypical Fulfillment: Jesus is unveiled as the original antitype and total fulfillment of all those who went before Him as prophetic types, merely foreshadowing His ultimate role in part (Rom. 5:14; 1 Cor. 15:45-49).

J. Fifth and Final Gospel: Revelation is the second half of the unfolding Gospel storyline when Jesus physically enforces the spiritual victory that He legally obtained at the cross. This is really good news!

K. Fulfillment of Fall Feasts: As Jesus, the Lamb of God perfectly fulfilled the Spring Feast of Passover, so He will fulfill the Fall Feast of Tabernacles, when God comes to Tabernacle among men forever (Rev. 21:3)!

L. Book of Prophecy: Tomorrow’s news today for all w/ears to hear (Rev. 1:3; 10:11; 19:10; 22:7, 10, 18, 19).
